

Congratulations to our
Corsa Final Draw
Winner

Pinky Seithamo

“Without Letshego I would be still struggling. Letshego has made a big difference and helped me and my family a lot over the years,” said Pinky Seithamo who this month won a Corsa Bakkie in a Letshego promotion. “I have built my home, put my child through school and bought a car with Letshego finance”, said Mrs Seithamo. “It would have been hard to do these things without Letshego’s help.” Mrs Seithamo has been a Letshego customer for 12 years. She is customer number 27 out of thousands of customers. “Letshego is proud and pleased to be able to help Mrs Seithamo, her family and people like her,” Mr Frederick Mmeseli, Chief Executive Officer of Letshego said. “I understand Mrs Seithamo’s son has studied computers and is doing well. The fact that Letshego assists people have a better life is very important to us. “We are trying to provide ways to help people to be empowered economically and Mrs Seithamo and her family is a great example of this.” This was the second time Letshego had given its customers a chance to win a bakkie and a range of monthly cash prizes.
