About TCB Commercial Bank

Tanzania Commercial Bank is one of the oldest banks in the country tracing its history to 1925 when the Tanganyika Post Office Savings Bank Ordinance was passed by the British Colonial government that established the Tanganyika Post Office Savings Bank. It is a public institution where the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania is a majority shareholder. It is licensed and supervised by the Bank of Tanzania. In June 2015, the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania repealed the previous Act and in March 2016 the bank was incorporated under the Companies Act (Cap 212) as TPB Bank PLC. In January 2017, the bank unveiled its new name TPB Bank PLC to the public as well as its new logo and tagline (Grow with us).

In May 2018, the Bank of Tanzania announced the merger between Twiga Bancorp and TPB Bank PLC and three month after in August 2018, announced another merger between Tanzania Women's Bank and TPB Bank PLC, as part of a wider plan to improve financial stability and reduce the number of government owned Banks in the country.

In June 2020, the Government of Tanzania through the Treasury registrar announced the merger between TIB Corporate Bank with TPB Bank Plc and on the 14th July 2021 the bank changed its name to Tanzania Commercial Bank with a tagline 'Growing stronger together'. Currently, the bank has more than 1,000 employees, 82 large and small branches that are located in every region of Tanzania, among these branches, two are in Zanzibar.
